

How to get a PA State Identification Card.

If you're a legal Pennsylvania resident, you can apply for a non-driver ID card when you turn 10 years old.

You will need to visit your local PennDOT office (see locations below) with:

- A completed application for Initial Identification Card (Form DL-54A). Available here or online.
- Proof of your identity and legal U.S. presence, such as your:
  - U.S. birth certificate with raised seal (copies will not be accepted).
  - Valid U.S. passport.
- Your Social Security card.
- Proof of your PA address (if you're 18 years old or older), such as:
  - Lease agreement.
  - W-2.
  - Current utility bill.
- Payment for the $30.50 fee. Driver License Centers do not take cash or credit cards only checks or money orders made payable to "Commonwealth of Pennsylvania."

Visit the PennDOT website for a complete list of accepted and required documents at <https://www.dmv.org/pa-pennsylvania/>

NOTE: You will need to have your photo taken. Your Pennsylvania non-driver ID card will be issued at the PennDOT office.
